DISCLAIMER

Although every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in the Daybreak University Handbook, students and others who use the Handbook should note that laws, rules, and policies change from time to time and that these changes may alter the information contained in this publication. Changes may come in the form of government statutes, rules, and policies adopted by the Board of Directors of Daybreak University, or by the President or designee. More current or complete information may be obtained from the appropriate department, school, or administrative office.

The information this document contains was accurate when it was published and placed on the Internet. Fees, deadlines, academic requirements, courses, degree programs, academic policies, and other matters described in this Handbook may change without notice.

The Handbook is updated regularly. Students are subject to the provisions of the most recent Handbook; however, if the student maintains continuous enrollment, every effort will be made to ensure the continuity and consistency of his or her degree program. If a student does not maintain continuous enrollment, his or her degree program is subject to change in alignment with the most recent provisions in the Handbook.

As a prospective student, you are encouraged to review this handbook prior to signing an enrollment agreement. You are also encouraged to review the School Performance Fact Sheet, which must be provided to you prior to signing an enrollment agreement.

Any questions a student may have regarding the Handbook that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at 1747 North Market, Suite 225 Sacramento, CA 95834/ PO Box 980818 West Sacramento, CA 95798-0818, <http://www.bppe.ca.gov/>, telephone number (916) 574-8900 or by fax (916) 263-1897.

The institution does not provide visa services or vouch for students and their spouses who want to study and need to change their visa status to F-1. Students and spouses must utilize the services of an attorney to change their status. Students must recognize that the application of a change of status does not guarantee approval of the change of status. The institution is not responsible for SEVIS's final decision.

AUTHORIZATION

Daybreak University is a private institution approved to operate as an accredited institution by the California Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE). “Approved to operate” or “approved” means that an institution has received authorization, pursuant to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act, to offer the public and to provide postsecondary educational programs.

The graduation of this institution does not guarantee or imply any possible future employment.

An individual may contact the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The bureau may be contacted at 1747 North Market, Suite 225 Sacramento, CA 95834/ PO Box 980818 West Sacramento, CA 95798-0818, <http://www.bppe.ca.gov/>, telephone number (916) 574-8900 or by fax (916) 263-1897.

Daybreak University is a member of the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS) [15935 Forest Road, Forest, VA 24551; Telephone: (434) 525-9539; e-mail: info@tracs.org], having been awarded Accredited Status as a Category IV institution by the TRACS Accreditation Commission on October, 27, 2020. This status is effective for a period of up to five years. TRACS is recognized by the United States Department of Education (ED), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), and the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE).

PRESIDENT'S GREETING

Dear Daybreak Community,

I would like to first welcome and thank you for the opportunity to serve as your president. Our time together will offer us many opportunities to engage, dream, and deliver on the many opportunities that lie in front of us.

Daybreak University strives to cultivate a professional, compassionate, and excellent learning community. It offers high quality academic programs, impressive academic facilities, and a very dedicated, well-qualified faculty who truly care for our students.

Daybreak University offers graduate programs in Counseling, emphasizing specialized education within in the scientist-practitioner model. We are committed to building a community that is devoted to student success and values individual learning, growth, and service.

Engagement will be a key ingredient as we seek to position Daybreak as a truly excellent place to learn and work. Through heightened communication, a spirit of collaboration, and a fierce commitment to our mission, we will help you learn, enhancing the overall student-centered learning experience, and executing necessary strategies that will position Daybreak University for generations to come.

Thank you and best wishes for a productive academic year.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jay Oh', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Jay Oh, Ph.D.
President

GENERAL INFORMATION

Mission Statement

The mission of Daybreak University is to be a facilitator for the students' self-actualization, in spite of the darker sides of their lives. Daybreak University provides rigorous education that inspires healing and change in individuals, couples, families, and communities through professional research, academic and practical excellence with a compassionate heart. The vision of Daybreak University is transforming the world by changing one relationship at a time.

Institutional Objectives

In pursuing its mission, Daybreak University seeks to achieve these four university wide objectives:

1. Achieve excellence in education and research.
2. Develop innovative and effective practitioners.
3. Develop a lifelong commitment to service and reflect spirituality of love and compassion into learning and practice.
4. Promote cultural and individual diversity and attitudes of respect for all.

Philosophy of Education

In order to achieve the institutional objectives, Daybreak University utilizes the scientist-practitioner educational learning model while also valuing the praxis-oriented, student-centered, and self-reflective models of learning.

Scientist-Practitioner Model

The scientist-practitioner model urges clinicians to allow empirical research to influence their applied practice; while simultaneously, allowing their experiences during applied practice to shape their future research questions. Daybreak students are encouraged to continuously advance and refine their clinical competence while integrating theory, field work, and research.

Praxis-Oriented Learning

“Praxis” is the process by which a theory, lesson, or skill is enacted, embodied, or realized. Praxis is also the act of engaging, applying, exercising, realizing, or practicing ideas, which is always entwined with communication. The Praxis-oriented learning allows Daybreak students to reflect on and revise their clinical work as they develop their understanding. The Praxis-oriented model will promote students' learning as an ongoing process through communication.

Student-Centered Learning

“Student-centered” learning puts students' interests first, acknowledging student voice as central to the learning experience. The student-centered learning will give students opportunities to lead learning activities, participate more actively in discussions, design their own learning projects, explore topics that interest them, and generally contribute to the design of their own course of study.

Self-Reflective Approach

The “person-centered” approaches (by Dr. Carl Rogers) emphasize increasing self-awareness, identifying personal issues, and implementing the self of the therapist as an effective therapeutic tool. This learning model allows student trainees to achieve a greater mastery of self for a more active, conscious and purposeful use of self in the clinical practice.

Ethical Values and Standards

Daybreak University’s ethical values and standards define the character of the institution and are active ingredients in all that the University does. Through our commitment to these values and standards the University can better serve and be more responsive to its students, staff and community:

Community

Building a community of scholars and students where we encourage each other to grow academically and spiritually.

Leadership

Serving the community with integrity, respect and cultural sensitivity.

Teamwork

Working together to encourage input and dialogue in a collegial manner befitting higher education.

Accountability

Continuously assessing where we are as a Christian institution and to assume responsibility for all that we do.

Participation

Fostering and encouraging faculty, staff and students in various university decision-making processes and practicing shared governance.

Excellence

Seeking high standards for teaching, scholarship, and performance with a commitment to continual development.

Spiritual Vitality

Moving together in personal relationship with Christ Jesus and knowledge of God’s calling, we dedicate ourselves to Spirit-filled service.

About Daybreak University

Daybreak University is a not-for-profit university located in Los Angeles, California. Daybreak is dawn: the time of day when sunlight first begins to appear. As our great teacher of Systemic Thinking, Dr. Gregory Bateson, said, "The major problems in the world are the result of the difference between how nature works and the way people think." Everyone has a dark side in their lives, whether it is a small or big. Throughout our life journey, sometimes we lose our way to a dark night. However, what we are supposed to remember is how nature works. Dr. Bateson pointed out that no matter how dark the night is, the dawn will always come. The crack of dawn will brighten up even our darkest night. This is what Daybreak University always wants to be.

Location and Facilities

Daybreak University is located at 1818 S. Western Ave. #207, Los Angeles, California 90006. The institution also operates a Remote Instructional Locations at 2500 Nutwood Ave, Fullerton, CA 92831. All class sessions are held at the above addresses and through the distance education. The facilities include classrooms, library, conference room, and administrative and faculty offices. All students have access to computers, campus wireless network, printers and copiers, and audio/visual gear including digital recorders and projectors. Daybreak University does not acknowledge Ability-to-Benefit policy, student's prior experiential learning, challenge exams or achievement tests. The institution does not have a pending petition in bankruptcy, is not operating as a debtor in possession, has not filed a petition within the preceding five years, or has not had a petition in bankruptcy filed against it within the preceding five years that resulted in reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C Sec. 1101 et seq.).

Approval and Accreditation

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education approves Daybreak University to offer following programs: Master of Arts in Counseling & Ph.D. in Counseling. The institution is a private institution, that it is approved to operate by the bureau, and that approval to operate means compliance with state standards as set forth in the CEC and 5, CCR.

The Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS) has determined that our Daybreak University's MA in Counseling program with the Specialization in MFT meets the statutory requirements for Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. Daybreak University is listed on the BBS website as an MFT program which meets the MFT licensure requirements, pursuant to California Business and Professions Code (BPC) §4980.36.

ADMISSIONS INFORMATION

General Admissions Policies

Admission is open to an individual who has earned a qualifying degree from an accredited institution. An applicant is expected to carefully review admission requirements outlined in this Handbook. An applicant to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy program in Counseling at Daybreak University is required to submit a completed application, application fee, and all official transcripts from institutions listed on the application.

- Transcripts should be delivered in their official, sealed envelopes. An official transcript can also be sent electronically directly from an institution.
- Educational instruction at the University is provided in English. An applicant who indicates on their application that English is not their primary language, is required to demonstrate proficiency in English by fulfilling minimum TOEFL score of 550 for paper-based test (PBT) or a score of 79 on the IBT. Students who have completed college level English courses from other institutions can be admitted to Daybreak University without TOEFL score. The University does not offer any ESL instruction.

Application materials submitted to Daybreak University become the property of the University and will not be returned to the applicant, irrespective of application outcome. Materials will be retained on file for one year from the time of application. Upon successful application, official transcripts, test scores, and acceptance letters will be kept in the Registrar's Office.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Daybreak University is committed to maintaining a community which recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among its members; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. In pursuit of its goal of academic excellence, the university seeks to develop and nurture diversity. The university believes that diversity among its many members strengthens the institution, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and enriches campus life.

Daybreak University views, evaluates, and treats all persons in any university related activity or circumstance in which they may be involved, solely as individuals on the basis of their own personal abilities, qualifications, and other relevant characteristics. Daybreak University prohibits discrimination against any member of the university community on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, genetic information, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, disability, or status as a veteran. The university will conduct its programs, services and activities consistent with applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and orders and in conformance with the procedures and limitations as set forth in Daybreak's Equal Opportunity, Equal Access and Affirmative Action Policy, which provides specific contractual rights and remedies.

Any question of interpretation regarding this Nondiscrimination Policy Statement shall be referred to the Program Director for final determination.

 - Pay the non-refundable application process fee: $200.00

Transfer Students and Transfer of Credits

Daybreak University accepts graduate-level transfer credit. However, students should not assume that credits will automatically transfer to or from any educational institution. Before signing an enrollment agreement, all students are advised to verify with Admissions office any requested transfer of credits and to determine whether or not the University will accept any credits earned at another educational institution. Credits completed at the graduate level with a grade of B or better at an accredited institution may be accepted up to 25 percent of the total credits required for the student's program. The University may accept credit from non-U.S. institutions for transfer provided that official transcripts demonstrate that these institutions and their courses are equivalent to Daybreak requirements. Daybreak University does not award credit for prior experiential learning.

Notice Concerning Transferability of Credits and Credentials Earned at Our Institution

The transferability of credits you earn at Daybreak University is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the degree you earn in the educational program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the credits or degree that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason, you should make certain that your attendance at the institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending Daybreak University to determine if your credits or degree will transfer.

Daybreak University has no articulation agreement with any other college or university, and credits completed in the student's program at the University may not be accepted by any other college or university for transfer. Also, the degree earned from the University may not be accepted by any other college or university as a basis for admission to a graduate-level program.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF)

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program, attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau, for Private Postsecondary Education.

Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 1747 North Market, Suite 225 Sacramento, CA 95834, (916) 574-8900 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120-day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.

4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

Financial Aid/Scholarships

Daybreak University does not participate in federal or state financial aid programs. However, the University offers a limited number of scholarships to help qualified students of every race, ethnicity, gender, and creed meet the financial requirements of attending the University. All current students who maintain an overall GPA of 3.0 or higher and are enrolled full-time are eligible to apply for scholarships. A scholarship application must be submitted to the Program Director during the registration period. The faculty scholarship committee determines the recipients in light of students' academic achievement and financial needs. Scholarships are awarded at the beginning of each quarter and will apply toward the student's tuition.

Loans and Responsibility

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

Payment Information

A student's account must be paid in full prior to re-enrollment in subsequent terms. Transcripts are withheld if a student has an outstanding obligation to the university or is in default on any government-based loan.

Rights to Cancel

Students have the right to cancel enrollment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Daybreak University reserves the right to terminate the student for unsatisfactory progress, non-payment of tuition, or failure to conform to the University's standards of conduct.

Each student should be advised that a notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

Refund Policy

Cancellation, Withdrawal, and Refund Policy

Each student should be advised that a notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

In compliance with the California Education Code, the refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the course of instruction is pro rata. The effective date of cancellation or withdrawal will be the date on which the student submits his or her notice to the Office of Admissions and Registrar. Tuition refunds are paid or credited to a student within 30 days of filing the withdrawal form.

A refund of 100% of institutional charges, without penalty or obligation, shall be made of the amount paid, less a $200.00 application fee for those students, who meet the following criteria:

1. Those whose class or classes were canceled by the University
2. Those who were not officially added by the instructor from a waiting list, and
3. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Tuition Refund Schedule

The student will not get a refund after more than 60% of the instruction has been presented. For students who have completed 60% or less of the instruction period, the refund shall be on a pro rata basis. The exact amount of prorated refund will be based on the formula listed below. The following table provides the estimated amount of refund at each point of withdrawal:

Percent of Attendance	10%	20%	30%	40%	50%	60%	Over 60%
Tuition Refund	90%	80%	70%	60%	50%	40%	0%

In calculating the refund, the University will:

- (1) Deduct the registration fee from the total tuition charge.
- (2) Divide this figure by the number of hours of the program.
- (3) The quotient is the hourly charge for the program.
- (4) The amount owed by the student for the purpose of calculating the refund due is derived by multiplying the total hours attended by the hourly charge for instruction calculated in (3), plus the amount of the registration fee specified in (1); and
- (5) The refund shall be any amount in excess of the figure derived from (4) that was paid by the student to Daybreak University.

For example: if a student withdraws a course after 18 hours out of 45 hours (4.5 credits x 10 weeks) and its tuition is $900, the refund will be: $$900 - $900 \times 18/45$ credit hours = $540.

NOTE: Students must follow the withdrawal procedure to be officially withdrawn from a course.

Failure to do so could result in the student being charged and receiving a failing grade in the class.

Questions and Complaints

Any questions a student may have regarding enrollment at Daybreak University that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at 1747 North Market, Suite 225 Sacramento, CA 95834, www.bppe.ca.gov, toll-free telephone number (888) 370-7589 or by fax (916) 574-8900.

A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education by calling (888) 370-7589 or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the bureau's internet web site www.bppe.ca.gov.

A member may also contact TRACS Accrediting Agency by completing the TRACS Complaint Form found on https://tracs.org/documents/3.TRACSComplaintForm-AgainstInstitution_000.pdf and submitting it to the President of the TRACS.

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Credit Hour Policy

Daybreak University operates under a quarter hour system. For all courses bearing academic credit, “one quarter hour of credit” is, at a minimum, one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately ten to twelve weeks. For example, a 4.5 quarter-credit course would require at a minimum 45 hours of academic engagement and 90 hours of preparation for a total of 135 hours. A credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute (not 60-minute) period.

Academic Advising

All incoming students will be assigned a faculty member as academic advisor. This advisor will offer counseling in course choice and scheduling, maintain GPA, and other academic issues.

Registration

All students are expected to maintain continuous enrollment during the full academic year, and to register for courses prior to the start of the related term. Any student who does not register in any courses will be administratively withdrawn from the University by the registration/add deadline as published on the academic calendar in this Handbook.

There are four registration periods for the fall, spring, summer, and winter sessions. Open registration is for students who are unable to register early and for students who may need to adjust their schedules. Late registration is held during the first week of classes (special schedule for intensive courses) to allow students to make section and class changes. A penalty fee is charged to students who enroll during this period.

Add/Drop

Students may add courses during the first two weeks of the term by submitting a completed add/drop card to the Office of the Registrar. The signatures of both the academic advisor and instructor of the class being added are required during the second week of the term.

- Week 1, no approval required.

- Week 2, approval of academic advisor and instructor.
- Week 3-10, not permitted.

Students may withdraw from courses by submitting an add/drop card to the Office of the Registrar. The time period in which a student withdraws from a course determines the recording of the course on the student's transcript. The following guidelines apply to the ten weeks fall and spring term only. Accelerated term and summer term refund schedules are calculated based upon a modified schedule.

- Week 1-2, no grade recorded on academic record
- Week 3-6, W grade recorded on academic record
- Week 7-10, no withdrawals are allowed*

*Exceptions. Exceptions to the preceding regulations for registration, schedule revision, and cancellation of assignment may be made for courses that do not span the regular term, summer or winter session

Class Attendance

Academic credit for a course requires regular class attendance and is not just a matter of completing the assignments. Attendance means being present in the class for the entire scheduled class meeting, not just some part of it. In the event of absence for any reason, students are responsible for any class content or information missed.

- Absence: Absence will be considered excused under the following circumstances: illness, death, or birth in the immediate family, and other valid reasons substantiated in writing and at the discretion of the class instructor or program director, as is appropriate. All other absences will be considered unexcused.
- Tardiness: Tardiness is a disruption of a good learning environment and is to be discouraged. Tardiness without legitimate reason on two occasions in one class will be considered as one unexcused absence.
- Make-Up Work: Make-up work may be required for any absence. However, hours of make-up work cannot be accepted as hours of class attendance.

This class attendance policy is predicated on the belief that enrollment in the University assumes maturity, seriousness of purpose and self-discipline. A student will be placed on attendance probation if he or she is below 85% attendance in any given subject/class. Frequent tardiness and/or unexcused absences will result in placing the student on probationary status.

Grading and Assessment

Instructors will assign a grade for each course in which the student is enrolled at the close of a session. The student shall be responsible for the completion of all required work by the time of the last scheduled meeting in the course unless the assignment to the course has been properly cancelled. The grade shall indicate the student's achievement with respect to the objectives of the course. Grades offered at Daybreak University are listed below:

Grade	Grade Points	Numerical Grade	Descriptions
A+	97-100	4.0	Outstanding
A	94-96	4.0	Excellent+
A-	90-93	3.7	Excellent

MFT Program Committee shall review all education courses, even if the curriculum is largely derived from existing campus-based courses and shall continue to ensure that the educational program offered through distance education is appropriate for delivery through distance education methods.

The academic review process by the committee shall be used to evaluate the educational effectiveness of education courses including assessments of student based on learning outcomes, student retention, and student satisfaction. This process shall also be used to assure the conformity of distance education courses to prevailing quality standards in the field of distance education.

The University shall maintain clear standards for satisfactory academic progress. The University shall ensure the completion of student evaluation of learning outcomes by duly qualified faculty, which are appropriate for use with the distance education methods used and evaluated by duly qualified faculty.

Grade Requirements

In order to maintain academic standing as a graduate student, all graduate students must maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average (GPA) in graduate courses. Any course with a B- or lower earned grade must be retaken until a B or higher grade is earned. Similarly, the grade of N (no pass) is not accepted for graduate credit and those courses must be retaken until a P (pass) is earned. A GPA below 3.0 at any time during a graduate student's studies or the accumulation of more than 5 credits of N or F grades – regardless of the GPA – is considered unsatisfactory. The Program Director may drop the student from the University, thus terminating the student's degree program.

Withdrawal/Leave of Absence

A student who wishes officially withdraw from Daybreak University must submit a withdrawal request to the Office of Registrar and Program Director. A student's official withdrawal date will be the date on which the withdrawal request form is submitted. A student will be unofficially withdrawn from the University if a student does not register for courses by the registration/add deadline or if a student does not return from an approved leave of absence as scheduled. The withdrawal date will be the last day of the last term attended.

Any Students may request to take a leave of absence from enrollment in classes for up to one academic year. Requests should be made to the Office of Registrar and require Program Director's approval. A leave of absence is granted only for extenuating circumstances such as medical, job, or family issues.

Remediation and Dismissal

Any student who fails to maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. Academic probation is designed to help the student to cope with academic difficulty. The Program Director will provide assistance to improve the student's academic proficiency. Any student who fails to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 for one academic year may be academically dismissed. A student dismissed for academic reasons may appeal to the Program Director for reinstatement. Such an appeal should be made in writing and include an account of the student's circumstances and a reasonable plan for successful completion of course work if reinstatement is granted.

In order to retain good standing as a student, the Department faculty will determine if an individual is, on a continuing basis, making satisfactory progress toward completion of degree requirements. Each student's progress is formally reviewed by the faculty yearly to assess satisfactory progress.

The MFT program faculty takes responsibility to ensure the quality and competence of graduates to practice as marriage and family therapists and have developed a formal screening process for admission into the clinical practicum. Each quarter clinical supervisors conduct a Practicum evaluation of each student in the different areas of clinical competency. Clinical supervisors can conclude that the clinical proficiency of a student is not progressing at the rate needed for the student to continue practicum experiences at that time. Should a student's behavior be deemed detrimental to clients' welfare, the student may be required to discontinue practicum until a remediation plan is developed and implemented. As part of the remediation plan, personal therapy may be required along with a specified training program. A student may also be deemed clinically not proficient and will not be allowed to complete the clinical contact hours required for graduation. The student will be apprised of this possibility as early as possible and will work closely with program faculty and clinical supervisors to correct deficiencies.

Graduation Requirements and Procedures

Graduation Requirements for the Master of Arts in Counseling (MAC) Program:

- A completion of all required course work with a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0.
- A satisfactory pass of comprehensive exam
- Practicum and internship work
- A settlement of all financial obligations with the University

Graduation Requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy in Counseling (Ph.D.) Program:

- A completion of all required course work with a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0.
- A satisfactory pass of comprehensive exam
- A satisfactory of Advanced Practical Experience
- A satisfactory completion of dissertation
- A satisfactory pass of oral defense a dissertation
- A settlement of all financial obligations with the University

All students desiring to graduate in a given quarter must file a graduation application with the Office of Registrar in the quarter prior to their expected graduation. Students on academic probation will not be allowed to graduate.

Methods of Instruction Delivery

Daybreak University offers the M.A. and Ph. D. program through the three different delivery method of instruction as follows: traditional (face-to-face) format, online format, and hybrid (face-to-face and online combined) format.

Traditional (Face-to-Face) Format

This delivery method allows learners and faculty to meet in person or as a group for regularly scheduled class sessions on campus. Face-to-face format can bring about synchronous student-instructor and student-student interaction.

Online Learning Format

Instruction is provided via the Internet and no face-to-face instruction is required. This format is a virtual classroom where course instruction, course content, and external resources such as academic links are provided to learners who are physically separated from the instructor. Instructions are provided electronically and asynchronously. Students in online courses watch and listen to lectures and complete assignments sent to them electronically. Students can always attend by participating in discussion boards or chat sessions, and turning in their work on time.

With regard to distance education, Daybreak University follows the regulation and guideline by the U.S. Department of Education as follows:

“An institution which offers Distance Education (DE) must be able to provide documentation that it has approval to offer its DE programs/courses in each state and/or location where it has enrolled students. The institution must identify the states and/or locations where it has been approved to offer DE programs/courses or has been exempted from such approval. This requirement is based on 34 CFR §600.9. The U.S. Department of Education has provided guidance to institutions regarding compliance with the regulation.”

Hybrid Format

The hybrid format incorporates both face-to-face delivery and online delivery formats. The hybrid format incorporates both face-to-face delivery and online delivery formats. Students can freely choose between traditional classes and online courses for each term. This hybrid format offers advantages both from traditional classes and from online learning; namely, person to person instruction and convenient electronic learning environment.

Distance Education:

Education that uses one or more of the technologies listed to deliver instruction to students who are separated from the instructor and to support regular and substantive interaction between the students and the instructor, either synchronously or asynchronously. The technologies may include the internet; one-way and two-way transmissions through open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, broadband lines, fiber optics, satellite, or wireless communications devices; audio conferencing; or video cassettes, DVDs, and CD-ROMs, if used in a course in conjunction with any of the technologies listed above.

Correspondence Education:

Education provided through one or more courses by an institution under which the institution provides instructional materials, by mail or electronic transmission, including examinations on the materials, to students who are separated from the instructor; interaction between the instructor and the student is limited, is not regular and substantive, and is primarily initiated by the student; correspondence courses are typically self-paced; and correspondence education is not distance education.

NOTE: This definition for Correspondence Education is provided to ensure that the institution's distance education meets the definition of distance education and does not fall to the level of correspondence education. Correspondence education is not reviewed by TRACS and is not included in an institution's scope of recognition with TRACS.

Distance Education Policy

Distance education at Daybreak University is defined as a formal educational process in which the majority of the instructional interaction occurs when student and instructor are not in the same place. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous. Distance education includes computer technologies. This policy shall apply to all credit-bearing courses and programs offered through distance education by the Daybreak University.

The following basic principles have been articulated:

1. While the Daybreak University ensures academic freedom and wishes to encourage innovation in instruction, the faculty also has a collective responsibility to ensure the academic quality and integrity of the University's courses, programs, and degrees. This responsibility extends to those courses and programs offered through distance education.
2. Faculty and students have a right to know the modes of delivery and technological requirements of each course, program, and degree offered by the University. Students shall have access to this information before enrolling in a course or program.
3. Distance education programs and courses shall be consistent with the educational mission of the University.

4. Courses, which are offered as distance education shall provide the opportunity for substantial, personal, and timely interactions between faculty and students.
5. Students in the distance education program shall have adequate access to library and student services.
6. The University shall provide appropriate support services to faculty who teach distance education courses.
7. Distance education program in the University is an optional mode of instruction. Nothing in this policy shall imply that distance education is a preferred or required mode of instruction in the school curriculum.

Curriculum and Instruction

In the curricular review process, distance education programs shall demonstrate that they provide the opportunity for substantial, personal, and timely interactions between faculty and enrolled students.

The director of the distance education program assumes responsibility for and exercises oversight over the program, ensuring both the rigor of the courses and the quality of instruction. This includes:

- The selection and evaluation of formally approved adjunct and/or part-time faculty.
- Ensuring that the technology used suits the nature and objectives of the distance education program.
- Ensuring the currency of materials, courses, and program.
- Ensuring the integrity of student work and the credibility of the degrees and credits the University awards. It is the responsibility of the director to ensure that reasonable safeguards are in place to prevent academic dishonesty.
- Ownership of materials, faculty compensation, and copyright issues shall be agreed upon by the instructor and the University prior to the initial offering of a course.
- No individual, program, or department shall agree in a contract with any private or public entity to deliver distance education courses or programs on behalf of the University without prior approval from the university.

Evaluation and Assessment

Academic Committee shall review all distance education courses, even if the curriculum is largely derived from existing campus-based courses and shall continue to ensure that the educational program offered through distance education is appropriate for delivery through distance education methods.

The method of delivery for new courses shall become part of each curriculum proposal, to be reviewed under the normal curricular process.

Any significant change in the method of delivery for existing courses or programs shall be submitted as a course change proposal, to be reviewed by the director of the distance education.

The academic review process by the committee shall be used to evaluate the educational effectiveness of distance education courses (including assessments of student based learning outcomes, student retention, and student satisfaction), and when appropriate, determine comparability to campus-based programs. This process shall also be used to assure the conformity of distance education courses to prevailing quality standards in the field of distance education.

A review and approval of all distance education courses, including those initially approved by the Program Director, shall begin immediately and conclude within two years of the implementation of this policy. This review shall follow the normal process specified in the policy file.

The University shall maintain clear standards for satisfactory academic progress.

The University shall ensure the completion of student evaluation of learning outcomes by duly qualified faculty, which are appropriate for use with the distance education methods used, and evaluated by duly qualified faculty.

Facilities and Finances

The program administrators shall provide evidence in the curricular proposal that:

- The University standards are followed in setting course-loads per instructor and/or academic unit.
- The program possesses or has access to the equipment and technical expertise required to deliver distance education courses and programs.
- Any distance education program has received resource approval prior to commencing operation.

Calendar and Course Credits

Distance education courses will be offered according to the general University academic calendar. Courses are offered on a quarter calendar, however, if appropriate, shorter cycles are permitted with the permission of the Program Director.

Final examinations will be scheduled according to the designated examination period for the quarter or cycle, unless otherwise approved by the Program Director.

Daybreak University operates under a quarter hour system. For all courses bearing academic credit, “one quarter hour of credit” is, at a minimum, one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately ten to twelve weeks. For example, a 4.5 quarter-credit course would require at a minimum 45 hours of academic engagement and 90 hours of preparation for a total of 135 hours. A credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute (not 60-minute) period.

As with any transfer coursework, academic credit may be transferred from a distance education course offered by other colleges or universities that are accredited by recognized agencies.

Course Integrity

Distance education courses will comply with all related the University policies, including but not limited to: academic integrity, code of ethics, student code of conduct, discipline policy and policy on discrimination and harassment

Courses will reflect good practices relating to: Well-articulated learning goals and expectations, Course procedures (e.g., communication, assignment submission), student assessment, program and course assessment, University disciplinary policy, University policy on discrimination and harassment, and the inclusion of well-articulated learning goals, course expectations and requirements, and methods of communication with instructor, on the course syllabus.

Transcripts

Student transcript for distance education courses will be handled as traditional face-to-face course. Transcripts will not reflect the modality of courses.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

References to personal traits such as race, ethnicity, disabilities, age, and gender may be made public in accordance with the FERPA regulations.

Instructor's Responsibility

Instructors in distance education program have responsibility for the quality of all program curricula. Ultimately, it is the instructor who is responsible for ensuring the integrity of the distance education offerings.

Faculty Support Policy

The program administrators shall ensure that:

The Daybreak University shall employ a sufficient number of faculty to assure that (A) the institution's response to, or evaluation of, each student lesson is returned to the student within 10 days after the lesson is received by the institution; and (B) the institution's response to, or evaluation of, each student project or dissertation is returned to the student within the time disclosed in the handbook.

The University shall maintain a record of the dates on which lessons, projects, and dissertations were received and responses were returned to each student.

The University shall ensure that the materials and programs are current, well organized, designed by faculty competent in distance education technique and delivered using readily available, reliable technology.

The University standards are followed in assigning course loads to instructors and awarding incentives to instructors teaching courses in distance education programs.

The Program Director possesses or has access to equipment, software, technical/ design/ production expertise, training, and technical/administrative support for effective and proficient delivery of distance education courses and programs, including potential changes in the technology or course structure.

The University ensures its long-range planning, budgeting, and policy development processes reflect the staffing, equipment, facilities, and other resources essential for the viability and effectiveness of distance education courses and programs.

Library and Learning Resources

The program administrators shall ensure that:

1. Students have adequate access to and support in the use of appropriate library resources.
2. Students have access to laboratories, facilities, and equipment appropriate to the courses.
3. Students are provided with an adequate means for developing the necessary knowledge, skills, and abilities to use effectively any technology required for distance education courses.
4. Students are provided with necessary technical support, during evenings and weekends as well as "regular" operating hours, to resolve hardware and software problems encountered while enrolled in distance education courses.

Student Services

The program administrators shall ensure that:

1. Students are provided with accurate and timely information about the University, its distance education courses and programs, costs, and related policies and requirements.
2. Students are provided with an adequate means for developing the necessary knowledge, skills, and abilities to use effectively any technology required for distance education courses.
3. Students are provided with necessary technical support, during evenings and weekends as well as "regular" operating hours, to resolve hardware and software problems encountered while enrolled in distance education courses.
4. Students are provided with adequate access to the range of student services including enrollment/registration, academic advising, tutoring, career counseling and placement, personal counseling, and disability services.
5. Students are provided with an adequate means for resolving student complaints and grievances.
6. Students are provided with meaningful interaction with faculty who are qualified to teach using distance education methods.

Student Technology Requirements and Support

In terms of technology requirements, in order to be successful in the program, students will need to utilize the following:

- Computer with...
 - Internet Access
 - Office Software (e.g., Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel)
 - Email Access
- Printer
- Populi (Learning Management Service): Instructions for using Populi are available on the Populi website. In--person Populi trainings are also available. Also, we provide the Populi Guideline to all students.

Some classes may require that students purchase statistical software packages (e.g., SPSS, LISREL), usually at a discounted student rate. Assistantship supervisors may also request that students utilize specific technological resources (e.g., Qualtrics, Google Docs, etc.). Questions about these requirements, or information about how to use these programs, should be directed to relevant course instructor or assistantship supervisor.

Daybreak University makes sure about technology requirement and support as follows:

1. The University assesses each student, prior to admission, in order to determine whether each student has the skills and competencies to succeed in a distance education environment.
2. The University shall provide adequate support services for the instructor and students participating in distance education courses, including necessary equipment, personnel and training.
3. The University designates the Program Director for technology support regarding the distance education program.
4. The Program Director handles administrative systems, equipment maintenance and general user support.
5. The Program Director also handles faculty support including instructional application and pedagogical issues involving technology.
6. The Program Director shall provide guidance and manuals for student training for the program.
7. Personal technology support is provided via zoom telephone or email (zoom room and/or Populi in addition)

Intellectual Property Rights

Ownership of materials, instructor compensation, and copyright issues shall be agreed upon by the instructor and the University prior to the initial offering of a distance education course. Unless otherwise agreed by the University and the instructor and specified in writing, the University claims the intellectual property rights on the educational contents and materials in the course so that the University can use the intellectual property and its future potential for the University.

Faculty Duties and Responsibilities

We have makes sure about faculty duty and responsibility as follows:

1. A faculty of distance education must participate in distance education orientation. He or she also must participate in regular distance education workshop or seminar to learn to use distance education platform, and be familiar with distance education policy and procedures.
2. A faculty of distance education must create and submit a syllabus that is feasible for distance education including elements such as title, course description, education objectives, sequence and frequency of lesson or class sessions, length of the class, complete citations of textbook and other required written materials, sequential and detailed outline of subject matter and list of learning outcomes and skills, instructional modes, or methods, etc.
3. A faculty of distance education must be able to use distance education platform that is adopted by the University.
4. A faculty of distance education must participate in faculty meeting and share input and feedback to improve the quality of distance education program, teaching effectiveness, and student success.
5. A faculty of distance education must collaborate with the director of the distance education or the one who is qualified to supervise distance education in conducting distance education class and collaborate the director of institutional research to collect student evaluation of the class.
6. A faculty of distance education must be able to verify student's identification in conducting distance education class. A faculty must communicate meaningfully and timely with students in commenting their work or assignment. This can be done through verifying student's login and password, their regular access to the class through platform and communicating with them through email and message. A faculty must collaborate with the director of distance education to verify their login and password if needed.
7. A faculty of distance education must verify and ensure that a student participates in distance education orientation and can use online platform to take the class.
8. A faculty of distance education must design a distance education course that contains meaningful interaction between faculty and student. Meaningful interaction between faculty and students can be stated in the course planner through syllabus reading, textbook reading, lecture note reading, lecture watching, quiz taking, essaying writing and comment, faculty responding to the questions and essay, forum participation, and threaded discussion and giving grading. And meaningful interaction must be appropriate and in timely manner. For instance, when the students submit course assignment or homework, a faculty must comment and respond within 10 business days.

9. A faculty of distance education must employ threaded discussion between faculty and students and/or among students whereby students and/or faculty can exchange review, research, and opinion through threaded discussion that is available in class, session and assignment. A faculty must create a forum in that students can make comment on the debate and discussion subject that is assigned by the faculty to share their input. Multiple students must be able to respond to each subject and students can share their opinions in threaded manner.
10. A faculty of distance education must continue to develop and improve distance education capacity and effectiveness by learning to expand knowledge of online technology and subject matter. Such effort must include but is not limited to taking online webinar class, reading of books that are related to online training and teaching guide, and be thoroughly familiar with Populi program manual.
11. A faculty of distance education must be able to use educational resources and technology that is available to faculty on campus and on-line.
12. A faculty of distance education must continually monitor student's progress by evaluating their work, assignment and grade by using scoring rubrics in timely manner.

Verification of Student Identification

An institution offering distance education as stated in Federal definitions must have a process to verify that the student who registers for a distance education course is the same student who participates in, completes, and receives credit. Methods to verify the student include but are not limited to a secure login or passcode, proctored examinations, or new or other technologies and practices that are effective in verifying the identity of the student. University must notify the student at the time of registration of any additional charges associated with the verification of student identity.

Student Privacy

The Daybreak University is committed to protecting student privacy for students enrolled in all courses. All of the University policies regarding student privacy and information security apply to distance education courses. Faculty teaching distance education courses are expected to uphold these policies and follow these procedures:

- Teach distance education courses using Populi, the University's learning management system, in order to ensure security of student work and grades.
- Use the University's secure student management system site to report student grades.
- Use Populi or the University's email system for all official, confidential communication

Daybreak University
MFT Program Handbook 2021-2022

such as providing feedback on student work, releasing grade information to students, etc.

- Keep student work, scores or grades confidential. Students in the course should not have access to other students' work or grades.
- Keep your Populi or email account information secure. Do not share your login information with anyone, give anyone unauthorized access to the Populi course or assign a student the role of instructor or graduate assistant in Populi.
- Follow the University's guidelines for sharing student educational record information with other faculty, staff, parents or others outside the University.

Graduate Achievement Data Table

The institution's assessment of student achievement includes retention rates, course completion rates, graduation rates, job placement rates, and state or other licensing examinations. Student achievement information is made available to the public.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Government

All students are eligible for membership in the Student Council of Daybreak University. The Student Council is responsible for matters of general student concern. Under the supervision of the Office of Student Services, the Council coordinates interactions between campus organizations, student body, faculty, and administration.

Academic Freedom

In pursuit of its mission, Daybreak University strives to promote an environment of full academic freedom in which to pursue teaching, learning, and scholarly activity. All faculty members and students are expected to exercise academic freedom in a manner consistent with the professional standards of one's discipline. All instructors have the right to freedom regarding the specific material to be covered, the pedagogical methods to be employed in a course, and individual student grades, as long as the materials, methods and grades are consistent with the learning objectives and academic policies. In their academic coursework, students are entitled to full freedom of learning. Faculty engaged in scholarly activity have the freedom to choose their subject matter and methods of inquiry. Scholars are entitled to full freedom in publication and presentation of their work. Students who engage in scholarly activity under the direction of a faculty member have academic freedom subject to the supervision of the faculty member.

Codes of Conduct and Discipline Policies

Daybreak University expects its students to be of high moral character, and to behave accordingly. Daybreak University Code of Conduct governs student behavior on- and off-campus, and its Academic Integrity policies govern classroom behavior and maintenance of grade point averages. Penalties for violation of academic integrity, academic discipline, and/or Code of Conduct policies range from warnings to permanent expulsion from Daybreak University. All students are required to sign a document attesting to the fact that they have read, understood, and will abide by the Code of Conduct. Any questions regarding these policies should be directed to the Program Director.

Academic Standards and Discipline

Students who fail to meet Daybreak University's academic expectations and rules (including attendance) may be warned, placed on probation, suspension or dismissed. The length of suspension is subject to determination by the Program Director (in consultation, with the student's academic advisor). Decisions regarding lengths of suspension may not be appealed. Students on academic suspension or dismissal status are not eligible for refunds of tuition or fees.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

It is in the best interests of both student and institution that students maintain good academic standing at Daybreak University. Students may do this demonstrating that they are making Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP); in other words, that they are working to the standard expected of them as evidenced by their Grade Point Average (GPA). Students are required to maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (equivalent to a "B" Average) to meet Daybreak University standards of SAP.

Students who fail to meet SAP standards will be automatically placed on academic probation, and will be required to meet with their academic advisor in order to work out a plan of action to remedy the situation.

Authenticity of Student Work & Academic Integrity

All students are expected to follow the Academic Standards and Discipline and abide by the Code of Conduct. As per the Code of Conduct, the Student Conduct system's purpose is "to help create a fair, just, and disciplined university community. The university conduct system supports the educational mission of the university by educating students about appropriate behavior and by fostering a community where academic success can occur."

These policies concern topics such as university responses to plagiarism, harassment, violence, criminal behavior, and failure to comply, among many others.

All members of the Daybreak community are expected to be truthful in all their work. Failure to represent one's work truthfully undermines one's character and the integrity of our community. Students are responsible for knowing what constitutes dishonesty, plagiarism, collusion, and other in academic work.

- Dishonesty: A student exhibits through lying, cheating, or deceiving. Its examples include copying from the examination papers of other students and submitting as one's own work papers obtained from another person or from the Internet.
- Plagiarism: A student plagiarizes if he or she misrepresents another person's work as one's own, involving other persons' ideas, articles, books and other intellectual property without proper citation. It ranges from a failure to acknowledge one's indebtedness to another for an idea or ideas to using words or sentences from others' work without proper citation.
- Collusion: A student colludes when he or she works without the permission of the instructor with another person or persons to produce work which is then presented as work completed independently by the student.
- Other: A student commits an act of academic misconduct when he or she inhibits or prevents other people from legitimate learning or teaching.

Any member of the University who violates the academic integrity policy will be subject to discipline. Academic integrity is under the supervision of the faculty, acting through the Program Director.

Conduct on Campus

Harassment

All students, staff, and faculty members of Daybreak University should be able to work in an atmosphere free of discriminatory intimidation based on sex, race, color, age, national origin, disability, religion, or any other factor. Such intimidation is considered harassment, is a violation of the victim's civil rights, and is against Daybreak University policy. All such behavior is expressly forbidden and will not be tolerated by Daybreak University. Any member of the Daybreak University community who threatens, upsets, irritates, persecutes, or in any other way disturbs others; or who creates or attempts to create a hostile environment or the perception of a hostile environment on university premises is subject to disciplinary action under this policy, up to and including dismissal from the University. This includes physical threats, intimidation, teasing, bullying, etc. If you feel that you have been a victim of any kind of harassment, please report it to the Director of Student Services or another member of Daybreak University administration.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination that violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Sexual harassment of students, staff, or faculty members by any member of the University community is against university policies, and may be considered illegal in some cases. Sexual harassment includes any repeated or unwanted verbal or sexual advances, sexually-explicit derogatory remarks, or offensive statements made by someone in the workplace or university environment when

- Submission to the conduct is either explicitly or implicitly a condition of employment, grades, or good will;
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for grading or relational decisions affecting any person; or
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with student, staff, or faculty performance of duties, or of creating an intimidating hostile, or offensive work or learning environment.

The above are examples of behavior that constitutes sexual harassment, but other behavior of a sexual nature may be considered harassment as well. Sexual harassment on Daybreak University premises will not be tolerated under any circumstances, and will be severely punished, up to and including dismissal from the University and, if applicable, legal actions against the harasser. Anyone experiencing or observing sexual harassment as described in any of the above categories should report the incident immediately to the Director of Student Services or another member of Daybreak University administration. For complete details regarding harassment of any sort and the disciplinary actions that may be taken, please refer to the Daybreak University Policies and Procedures Manual.

Campus Health and Safety

Drug and Alcohol-Free Campus Policy

Alcohol and drug consumption cause changes in behavior, ranging from impaired judgment and coordination to inhibiting a person's ability to learn and use higher mental functions. Repeated use may lead to dependence, and long-term use can cause permanent damage to the brain, liver, and other vital organs. This is inconsistent with Daybreak University's desire for all its constituents to be healthy and sound as possible, in mind and body. As mandated by federal regulations (Drug-Free School and Community Act Amendments of 1989), Daybreak University maintains certain policies regarding a drug- and alcohol-free campus. These policies are outlined below.

General Policy on Possession of Controlled Substances

The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of controlled substances is prohibited on Daybreak

University property or as part of any University activity. Employees or students found to be in violation of this drug- and alcohol-free environment policy will be subject to appropriate action, including but not limited to termination or dismissal. Any employee or student who becomes aware of a violation of this policy should report it immediately to the Director of Student Services, or any administrators so that the matter can be investigated. Daybreak University will report any illegal activities to relevant local, state, or federal authorities, and will cooperate to the best of its ability with such authorities in investigations of violations of this policy.

Drugs and Medications

Unlawful manufacturing, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of controlled substances is prohibited by state law under the California Uniform Controlled Substances Act (California Health & Safety Code). Any Daybreak University constituent who violates the above policy is therefore subject not only to disciplinary action under the Daybreak University Code of Conduct, but to possible criminal prosecution. The only exception to this policy is for medications that have been legally and properly prescribed by a physician. Those in possession of such medications and related paraphernalia (e.g., insulin needles) must keep these items on or near their persons at all times, and should only use or take such medication when necessary and as privately as possible. Used medical paraphernalia must be removed from campus and disposed of properly. Daybreak University waste receptacles are not for medical waste, and disposal of medical waste in these receptacles constitutes a biohazard. This policy does not apply to legal, over-the-counter, non-controlled medications, such as aspirin, acetaminophen, cold remedies, etc., although such medications should also be used privately and only when necessary.

Alcohol

Daybreak University abides by all state and local laws regarding the possession, consumption, sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages. No alcoholic beverages of any kind are to be brought onto Daybreak University campuses or properties without authorization. The legal drinking age in California is 21. Any Daybreak University student or employee under the age of 21 who purchases, attempts to purchase, or knowingly possesses an alcoholic beverage, on-campus or off-campus; or a student or employee over 21 who purchases, attempts to purchase, or otherwise furnishes alcoholic beverages for a person under the age of 21, is in violation of state law and of University policy, and subject to discipline under the Daybreak University Code of Conduct and to possible criminal prosecution.

Tobacco

Tobacco use (including cigarettes, cigars, pipes, e-cigarettes or vaping devices, chewing tobacco, snuff, dip, snus, gutka and paan), is prohibited on in all Daybreak University buildings and on all Daybreak University premises, except in designated outdoor areas. These areas contain fireproof ashcans for disposal of cigarette butts. Tobacco-related rubbish, such as cigarette butts, empty cigarette or tobacco packets, etc. must be disposed of properly so as to avoid litter and the risk of fire. Students or employees not properly disposing of used smoking or other tobacco materials are subject to disciplinary action.

Weapons

Weapons of any kind or facsimiles thereof are prohibited on Daybreak University property. This includes but is not limited to firearms, explosives, fireworks, incendiary devices, pellet guns, and non-utility knives or other sharp blades. Those found to be in possession of such items on Daybreak University property are subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the University and legal action where appropriate.

Communicable Disease Policy

Daybreak University follows the health and safety guidelines set forth by the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) and by the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as they relate to communicable diseases. Communicable diseases prevalent in the US and Canada include influenza, infectious mononucleosis, hepatitis A and B, measles, meningitis, mumps, chicken-pox, tuberculosis, acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS; including ARC and HIV), other immunodeficiency-related viral infections such as Human T-cell lymphotropic virus types I and II (HTLV-I and II), and sexually transmitted diseases such as Chlamydia, herpes, syphilis, and gonorrhea. These diseases pose primary risks to the infected person and secondary risks to those who come in contact with the infected person.

Cases of communicable diseases at Daybreak University will be handled with concern for the individual as well as for the University community. Any student, staff, or faculty member who is aware he or she has a communicable disease, either through diagnosis or because of obvious symptoms, should report this immediately to the Program Director and to the Director of Student Services. All information thus reported shall be strictly confidential. The individual's right to privacy shall be protected in all reported incidents. Only communicable diseases that are required by law to be reported to local health agencies shall be reported.

In all cases of communicable disease, Daybreak University reserves the right to impose restriction of campus activities on the infected individual, based on all available relevant information. Such decisions will generally be made by the Program Director and to the Director of Student Services.

Children on Campus

Daybreak University cannot be responsible for children on campus. Therefore, for reasons of safety and insurance, children are not allowed on the Daybreak University campus (apart from those accompanying short-term visitors). Students may not bring their children to the campus while classes are in session. All children brought by visitors must be under adult supervision at all times.

Animals on Campus

No pets or animals of any other kind are allowed on Daybreak University property without prior authorization from Daybreak University Administration. Service animals are permitted on the Daybreak University campus with the prior authorization of Daybreak University Administration.

If you have a service animal, please contact the Main Office for details on obtaining authorization.

Visitors to the Campus

Visitors are welcome to Daybreak University. Visitors are responsible for any children that accompany them. All visitors (i.e. anyone who is not a student, faculty member, or staff member of Daybreak University) must sign in at the front desk. Visitors who have not signed in may be asked to leave the premises. Daybreak University is a private business, and therefore reserves the right to refuse entry to anyone for any reason.

Parking on Campus

Students are welcome to park their vehicles on campus during classes. Parking spaces immediately in front of the campus building are reserved for faculty and staff. Marked handicapped spaces are reserved for the use of handicapped drivers. Anyone parking in faculty or handicapped spaces without suitable tags on their vehicle is liable to be towed, at the owner's expense.

No vehicles may be left in the parking lot overnight. Cars are to be locked when on campus. Daybreak University accepts no liability for any damages incurred by parking in campus parking lots.

Hazardous Chemicals and Machinery

Under no circumstances are students or unauthorized faculty and staff to handle or use any materials, such as cleaners, paints, etc. or any machinery such as vacuums, floor cleaners, etc. or any machinery or devices not directly related to their job or work. No student or staff member without such permission is to handle these.

Campus Emergency Plan

The Daybreak University Campus Emergency Plan is a comprehensive plan covering actions to be taken in most emergencies. Full text of the Plan may be found at the end of this Handbook or in the Daybreak University Student Handbook.

Complaints and Grievances

Members of the Daybreak University MFT Program community may bring complaints or concerns about harassing or discriminatory behavior to the Director of MFT Program. The University may seek informal resolution when it receives allegations of unlawful discrimination or harassment. If an informal resolution does not result, a formal process may be initiated by submitting a complaint or grievance to the program director. Initially, concerns may be communicated orally; however, they should be submitted in writing before any formal review takes place. The written complaint should specify the University policy violated and all relevant factual details.

Daybreak University
MFT Program Handbook 2021-2022

1. The Program Director shall read the complaint, and if it warrants further investigation, then a copy of the complaint should be forwarded to the person against whom the complaint is made (“respondent”). If the allegations would not constitute a violation of a policy, then the program director should inform the grievant in writing that the allegations are not subject to further investigation.
2. The respondent shall be given 14 calendar days from receipt of the complaint to return a written response to the program director, who then shall initiate a reasonable investigation into the matter. The investigation may include meeting with the parties, talking with witnesses, and reviewing any supporting documents. A grievant may elect to withdraw a formal complaint at any time; however, the university reserves the right to investigate all complaints in order to protect the interests of the University and its community.
3. Within a reasonable time, the Program Director shall make a decision based on the formal complaint, response, and any other relevant information. This decision shall be in writing and shall consist of factual findings, conclusions, and a remedy if one is appropriate. All parties shall receive a copy of the decision.
4. Any party may submit a written request for appeal of the decision to the President of the University within 14 calendar days from receipt of the decision. The request for appeal must specifically set forth all grounds for appeal. The non-appealing party must be given the opportunity to respond in writing to the request for appeal. Within a reasonable time, the president shall make a decision based on the complaint, response, decision, request for appeal, any response to the appeal, and any meeting the president held in regard to the appeal. The decision of the president shall be final. All parties shall receive a copy of the president's decision.
5. All written decisions made and materials produced in a grievance conducted under this procedure shall be retained by the Program Director for at least two years from the date that the final decision was issued.
6. Students can file a complaint about the institution to the Bureau any time, independently of the institutional grievance process by contacting them at the address:

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE)
1747 North Market, Suite 225
Sacramento, CA 95834

Accessibility Accommodations

Daybreak University is committed to providing all students with equal access to academic courses, programs, and school activities. In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the University will facilitate reasonable accommodations for a student with a disability that substantially affects a major life activity. The University will meet the needs of the student to the extent that the student is able to perform the essential portions of the classwork and that the accommodations will not impose an undue burden on the school and/or fundamentally altering the nature of the course, program, or activity at issue. Reasonable accommodations may include adaptations in the way specific course requirements are accomplished, the use of auxiliary equipment and support staff, and other modifications including testing procedures.

Student Records under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

FERPA, shorthand for the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 [20 U.S.C. 1232g] is a federal regulation that protects the privacy of student education records. It applies to all schools that may receive funds from the U.S. Department of Education. In accordance with FERPA, certain information designated as “directory information” may be released without prior consent of the student, unless the student has forbidden its disclosure, in writing, to the Office of Registrar. Typically, “directory information” includes information such as name, id number, gender, date and city of birth, address, telephone listing, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, and dates of attendance. major field of study, awards, honors (includes Dean/Director’s List), degree(s) conferred.

The written request must be submitted no fewer than two weeks prior to the beginning of any academic term. It will stay in effect until rescinded in writing by the student. The University will assume that a student does not object to the release of Directory Information unless the student files this written notification. Students may waive their rights under FERPA by completing a Waiver Form, available in the Office of Registrar.

Student Services

New Student Orientation

New student orientation is offered during the first week of each term. Students attending the orientation will have an opportunity to get important information about academic and administrative policies and procedures. They will meet with their academic advisors and complete final registration.

Academic and Career Advising

Daybreak University provides support for students through the appointment of a faculty advisor. The goal of faculty advising is to provide each student a one-to-one relationship with a member of the faculty. The faculty advising relationship has several purposes:

- Academic advising regarding degree requirements
- Career guidance and job placement services
- Personal and spiritual counsel as needed

The Center for Career & Professional of Student Services is available to provide advising for current students regarding career goals and planning, job search, resume writing, and interview skills. The director is normally available for advising during regular office hours. The director and faculty members offer career and placement consultations but there is no guarantee of employment.

Student Development

Daybreak University promotes personal and social development of students by encouraging them to establish and facilitate clubs that provide outlets for their special interests. All clubs must be supervised by the Director of Student Services to receive funds, conduct fund-raising, or advertise events on the campus. The general requirements of club are that

- it must have accountability (faculty/staff advisor);
- it must build unity (membership is open to all applicable persons); and
- it must serve the greater community (one community event per year).

Technology

Daybreak University is committed to promoting an environment of learning that encourages students to use modern technology to enhance their experience. Wireless internet can be accessed throughout the campus. Students are encouraged to use a laptop/notebook computer that complies with the minimum system requirements. Students will be oriented to the IT use policies during student orientation.

Student Housing

Daybreak University is non-residential and does not maintain dormitory facilities. Students are responsible for securing their own housing while attending the University. Since the University is in the vicinity of Koreatown Los Angeles, rental units, ranging from $400 to $1,300, are available in studio or apartment complexes, studios, and rooms in private homes. Students who need assistance in finding housing near the University may contact the Director of Student Services for general information, but the University does not assume the responsibility for finding or securing housing.

Health Insurance

Daybreak University highly recommends that every student have health insurance. Daybreak University does not offer student health plan, but provide students with related health information.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN COUNSELING WITH A SPECIALIZATION IN MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY PROGRAM

Program Mission

The mission of the Marriage and Family Therapy PhD program at Daybreak University is to develop scientist-practitioners in the field of couple, marriage, and family therapy. The doctoral program provides academic and clinical training for the purpose of developing scholars with the competence in systemic clinical work, supervision, teaching, and research.

Program Goals

Program Goal #1 (Knowledge):

The program will train students who demonstrate advanced and comprehensive knowledge of systems concepts and MFT theories and techniques.

Program Goal #2 (Practice):

The program will train students who demonstrate an ability to conceptualize systemic thinking as applied in supervision, mentoring, and the isomorphic dynamics among different levels of the training system.

Program Goal #3 (Diversity):

The program will train students who demonstrate awareness and competence in culturally sensitive clinical work, supervision, teaching, and research.

Program Goal #4 (Ethics):

The program will train students who demonstrate applied knowledge of MFT legal and ethical guidelines and professional standards.

Program Goal #5 (Research):

The program will train students who demonstrate the ability to design, conduct, analyze, and identify clinical implications of systemic and relational research.

Student Learning Outcomes

SLO #1 (Knowledge): Students will demonstrate competence in advanced MFT models and techniques.

SLO #2 (Practice): Students will demonstrate the ability to integrate systems concepts and MFT theories in their clinical work, supervision, teaching, and research.

SLO #3 (Diversity): Students will demonstrate understanding of contextual factors and respect for diversity and inclusion in their clinical work, supervision, teaching, and research.

SLO #4 (Ethics): Students will demonstrate competence in ethical and professional clinical work, supervision, teaching, and research.

SLO #5 (Research): Students will conduct systemic and relational research that has clinical implications for marriage and family therapy.

Degree Completion Timelines

The program is a 93-quarter unit program including 18 units of dissertation. The course of study usually spans a period of 3 years. Students can expect to complete their coursework and dissertation in 3 years. Students must complete their study within seven years, beginning on the date of their first registration for Ph.D. courses. A Ph.D. student must carry 9 (7.5 as needed) or more units to be considered a full-time student. Those carrying fewer than nine (7.5 as needed) units are considered part-time students.

Degree Completion Requirements

1. A completion of all required course work with a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0.
2. A satisfactory pass of comprehensive exam
3. A satisfactory completion of dissertation
4. A satisfactory completion of Advanced Practical Experience
5. A satisfactory pass of oral defense of a dissertation
6. A settlement of all financial obligations with the University

Comprehensive Examination

All candidates for the Ph.D. degree must pass a written comprehensive examination over the major field of study. These examinations serve as a major means of evaluating the student's academic competency in the major area. Comprehensive examinations may be taken any time after completion of 63 units of Ph.D. coursework. Only two retakes of the examination are permitted.

Advanced Practical Experience

All Marriage and Family Therapy students are required to complete an Advanced Practical Experience during their third year in the program. This experience must last for a minimum of 6 months.

Advanced Practical Experience Competencies

In accordance with the program's educational outcomes, and in order to complete the requirements of the Advanced Practical Experience, MFT doctoral students must demonstrate competence in at least two of the following areas:

1. Research & Scholarship: Application of qualitative or quantitative research methods and writing skills to produce presentations and publications. This does not include dissertation research.
 2. MFT Supervision: Supervise trainees and receive supervision mentoring to become an AAMFT Approved Supervisor.
 3. Teaching: Take major responsibility for teaching undergraduate or graduate students in courses related to marriage and family therapy.
 4. Grant Writing: Take major responsibility for writing a research or service delivery grant in a supervised work setting.
 5. Clinical Practice: Obtain direct clinical contact hours with individuals, couples, and families. All client contact must be supervised. Students may begin the clinical hours in their third term and complete required clinical hours with supervision following.
- * If students enter the Doctoral Program without completing the COAMFTE Master's courses they must additionally conduct the COAMFTE MFT Master's required clinical hours (300 clinical hours with 100 supervision hours).

Dissertation

Students gain knowledge and insights from class lectures to integrate them into their course papers and dissertation research issue. Each student is provided with a primary advisor for their dissertation. The primary advisor supervises his or her student to specify and deepen their research focus. Three dissertation committee members including a primary advisor guides a student's dissertation. The program fosters an ethos of mutual learning so that students will develop constructive and collaborative habits of collegiality as they work together on their degrees. Students must earn at least 75% of the credit hours required for the degree through the Daybreak University.

The Ph.D. dissertation is the bulk of the doctoral program. Doctoral students have two options to complete their dissertation: (1) A Ph.D. dissertation which is between 100 to 200 pages in length (2) An article type dissertation. The article type dissertation includes one full-length article that is publishable quality in a peer-reviewed journal. This article must be empirical in nature; that is, the student should conduct original data analyses of some kind (e.g., quantitative, qualitative, historical, program development).

All dissertations should adhere to regulations and requirements from the Daybreak University. Students who are considering this format are strongly encouraged to confer with their dissertation chair as early as possible, since an article-style dissertation may not be the best approach for all students and dissertation topics.

An Oral Defense of a Dissertation

The dissertation is prepared, submitted, and defended in an oral examination. Students can do this oral defense only after they have successfully completed course work, comprehensive examination, and a submission of dissertation.

CFT 9600: PhD Dissertation I, II, III, & IV

The course helps students complete their dissertation. The course begins with the concept paper and culminate with the defense of the dissertation or research project. Additional Dissertation Research project courses may be required to complete all milestones in the program. This course involves data collection and implementation and the final-approval process. Content and format issues, as well as recommendations for further research, are highlighted. Dissemination of the dissertation and possible outlets for publication are covered.

CFT 9800: Supervision of Supervision

The purpose of this course is to prepare relational supervisors so you are expected to meet the high standards for the course. A relational supervisor supervises trainees in the practice of systemic, relational therapy through a variety of means and methods.

CFT 9810: Supervision Practicum.

During this 10-week course students will co-supervise a weekly 3-hour virtual supervision group with Daybreak University clinical supervisors. Students must complete CFT 9800: MFT Supervision of Supervision course prior to taking CFT 9810.

CFT 9900: Professional Development Seminar

This course reviews and critiques of professional issues in the field of marriage and family therapy related to scholarship, pedagogy, and service.

DAYBREAK UNIVERSITY COUPLES AND FAMILY COUNSELING CENTER

Daybreak University Couples and Family Counseling Center (DBU CFCC) is the clinical training facility for MA and PhD students in Marriage and Family Therapy program at Daybreak University. All of the therapists at the DBU CFCC are MA and PhD students specializing in marriage and family therapy. DBU CFCC provides clinical training including ethical and responsible conduct during their first term in practicum. The Center is located on the Daybreak University campus in Los Angeles, California. The DBU CFCC provides psycho-education, couple and family therapy, group therapy, couples workshop, and many other programs.

Chancellors

Harville Hendrix, Ph.D. and Helen LaKelly Hunt, Ph.D. are partners in life and work, and Co-Chancellors and Distinguished Professors of Imago Relationship Therapy at Daybreak University. Together, they have written over 10 books, including three New York Times bestsellers. Harville and Helen co-created Imago Relationship Therapy (IRT) to promote the transformation of couples and families by creating relational cultures that support universal equality.

Harville Hendrix, Ph.D.

Harville Hendrix, Ph.D. is the co-founder of Imago Relationships International (IRI) with Helen LaKelly Hunt, Ph.D., and Chancellor of the Imago International Training Institute (IITI). He is a New York Times bestselling author of the popularly acclaimed books: Getting the Love You Want: A Guide for Couples, Keeping the Love You Find: A Guide for Singles, Giving the Love That Heals: A Guide for Parents, and Receiving Love: Transform Your Relationship by Letting Yourself Be Loved. He is an international speaker, and couple's therapist with more than 40 years' experience as an educator, clinical trainer and lecturer who has appeared on Oprah's television program 17 times. A former professor at Southern Methodist University, Dr. Hendrix holds an M.A. and a Ph.D. in Psychology and Religion from the University of Chicago. He is a Diplomat in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors and a clinical member of the American Group Psychotherapy Association and the International Transactional Analysis Association.

Helen LaKelly Hunt, Ph.D.

Helen LaKelly Hunt, Ph.D., is a New York Times bestselling author, speaker, and noted philanthropist. Her partnership with Dr. Harville Hendrix has led to the creation of 10 books on relationships and the widespread effectiveness of Imago Relationship Therapy (IRT). She holds Ph.D. degree from Union Theological Seminary (NY). Dr. Hunt has been active within the women's movement for the past eighteen years. She is founder and president of The Sister Fund, a private women's fund dedicated to the social, political, economic, and spiritual empowerment of women and girls. Helen has helped to create a number of other women's funding institutions, including the Dallas Women's Foundation, the New York Women's Foundation, and the Women's Funding Network. Helen has served on the Boards of Directors of the Ms. Foundation for Women, Women and Foundations, and the New York City Women's Agenda. In 2004, shortly after completing a Doctoral degree at Union Theological Seminary in New York, she wrote Faith and Feminism: A Holy Alliance. For her distinguished contributions to the women's movement, Helen has received many awards including the LEAD Award, Gloria Steinem's Women of Vision Award, and has been inducted into the National Women's Hall of Fame.

CAMPUS EMERGENCY PLAN

IN CASE OF FIRE OR EMERGENCY, CALL 911 IMMEDIATELY

General Emergencies

Daybreak University has an emergency plan that gives procedures to follow in case of fire, weather, earthquake, or lockdown emergencies. In the event of a medical emergency, the situation should be reported immediately to the University office, and 911 must be called. Only trained personnel should provide any type of medical care. A first aid kit is kept in the business office for minor needs.

In an emergency, you should:

- Upon discovering an emergency, or potential emergency, immediately get to a safe place if possible and CALL 911; then call the Office at (310)-739-0132.
- Give the Office as much information as possible regarding the emergency.

The Daybreak office will:

- Identify the nature and scope of the emergency;
- Establish priorities and coordinate crisis response efforts;
- Interact with outside agencies including, but not limited to, the American Red Cross, law enforcement, fire department, and the Federal Emergency Management Agency
- Determine the times and means to report efforts and progress to the campus community.

Every effort is made to ensure a safe and hazard-free work and study place. Unforeseen circumstances may occur, however, and every contingency cannot be anticipated. Daybreak

University Campus Emergency Policy, outlined below, gives information as to what to do in the event of an emergency, crime, or natural disaster.

In an emergency, disabled persons are to be given priority in the use of elevators.

EMERGENCY AND CRISIS PROCEDURES

The following procedures should be followed in the event of emergencies:

Fire

In all cases of fire, Daybreak University Administration must be notified as soon as possible. Fire alarm pulls are located throughout the building; pull the alarm and then call 911.

- During a fire alarm in any building, you are required to evacuate immediately.
- If you become trapped in the public area of a building during a fire, find a room, preferably with a window (keep window closed as much as possible), place an article of clothing (shirt, coat, etc.) outside the window as a marker for rescue crews. If there are no windows, stay near the floor where the air will be less toxic. Shout at regular intervals to alert emergency crews of your location.
- If you are in a room when a fire alarm sounds, feel the door. If it is hot, do not open it. Seal the cracks around the door with a wet towel or other cloth fabric; place an article of clothing or a sheet outside the window or try to use the telephone for help. If you can safely leave your room, do so and proceed to the nearest exit. Shout and pound on doors to alert others as you leave.
- Know the locations of fire extinguishers, fire exits, and alarm systems in your area. Know how to use them in case of an emergency.
- If a minor fire appears controllable, use one of the fire extinguishers located throughout the building. Pull the pin, aim, squeeze, and sweep the fire extinguisher toward the base of the flame.
- If an emergency exists, notify Daybreak University Administration and activate the building alarm. Call 911 and report the fire.
- If a large fire or one that appears uncontrollable is present, evacuate all rooms, closing all doors to confine the fires and reduce oxygen. Do not lock doors or open windows.
- When the building evacuation alarm is sounded to signal that an emergency exists, follow the evacuation maps posted throughout the building. Walk quickly to the nearest marked exit and alert others to do the same.
- Assist the disabled in exiting the building. Do not use the elevators during a fire. Smoke is the greatest danger in a fire, so stay near the floor where the air will be less toxic.
- Once outside, move to a clear area at least 500 feet away from the affected building. Keep streets, fire lanes, hydrants, and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and crews.

- If requested, assist emergency crews as necessary.
- A campus emergency command post may be set up near the emergency site. Do not return to an evacuated building until instructed to do so by a University Official.

Illness or Injury

In the event of a serious injury or illness:

- Immediately dial 911 for assistance. Give your name, the campus location of the victim, and describe the nature and severity of the medical problem. Only trained personnel should provide advanced first aid treatment or CPR.
- Keep the victim still and as comfortable as possible.
- Ask the victim, “Are you Ok?” and “What is wrong?” If the victim can speak, take note of what they say and report it to medical professionals when they arrive.
- Check breathing and give CPR if necessary and only if you are properly trained. Do not attempt CPR unless you have been trained.
- Control serious bleeding by direct pressure on the wound.
- Continue to assist the victim until help arrives.
- Look for emergency medical ID, question witnesses, and give all information to the paramedics.
- In case of minor injuries, such as small cuts and scrapes, a first aid kit is located in the office.

Gas Leak

In the event of a gas leak:

- Call 911 and notify Daybreak University Administration.
- Evacuate the building if the safety of faculty, staff, and students is threatened.
- Open doors to promote cross-ventilation.
- Emergency services will establish a safe perimeter. Do not return to an evacuated building until instructed to do so by a University Official.

Severe Weather

The Los Angeles area is not prone to a high number of tornadoes. However, it is necessary to have an organized method by which to provide ample warning of the possibility of a tornado and to respond in the event a tornado has been spotted or the campus is struck. In the event Los Angeles area comes under a tornado warning and the tornado is heading toward the campus, the Program Director will immediately notify the President. All classes will be immediately informed. General precautions should be followed:

- Remain indoors
- Go to the safest area in your building (see list below).
- Stay away from windows. Windows need not be opened.
- Close and vacate all offices with outside windows.
- If your building is hit, lay flat on the floor and cover your head with your arms and hands.
- After the tornado hits, do not leave your building until word is given by proper authorities, unless your life is threatened by remaining in the damaged building.
- Remain in the safest areas: Stairwells and hallways on the first floor If a tornado watch (meaning that weather conditions are right for a tornado, but no tornado has yet been spotted) is issued for the metro Los Angeles area, the Program Director will notify the President, who will determine if further action should be taken.

In the event of severe weather:

- Shut down all computers and electrical equipment that might be damaged by a lightning strike.
- The decision to evacuate a building will be announced by Daybreak University Administration. Evacuate the building if the safety of persons inside is threatened.
- Meet at a predetermined location away from the building.
- Check all areas to ensure that everyone is evacuated.

If weather conditions become hazardous during normal business hours, a decision to close the campus early will be shared via e-mail announcement, telephone calls to each department, and posting on the Daybreak University website. If weather conditions deteriorate overnight, then the administration will make a decision either to close the campus for the day or open later in the day. Announcements will be made via Daybreak University website, the main campus telephone number, and broadcast over major television and radio stations. If severe weather conditions arise while classes are in session, remember to be extremely careful when exiting the building.

Chemical Spill or Radiation Release

Daybreak University is located near Freeway 10, a major traffic route into and out of Los Angeles. Dangerous substances are transported daily on this highway, and are susceptible to accidental release in the aftermath of collisions or fire. These toxic substances can be carried in cloud form and, depending upon variable winds, could affect the Daybreak campus.

In the event of a chemical spill or radiation release:

- Immediately call 911 and give the location, material(s) involved, and the extent of any injuries, if known.
- Report the incident to Daybreak University Administration.
- Activate the building alarm.

- Evacuate the affected building or area and leave clear access for arriving emergency personnel.
- Always move uphill, upstream, or upwind to avoid contamination.
- Assist the disabled in exiting the building. Remember that elevators are reserved for the disabled person's use. Do not use elevators in case of fire.
- If requested, assist emergency crews as necessary.
- Do not return to an evacuated building until instructed to do so. In case of a spill of potentially hazardous chemicals in or near campus buildings, notify Daybreak University administration immediately. Do not touch or approach any potentially hazardous substance.

Bomb Threat

In the event of a bomb threat:

- Do not handle any suspicious object or package!
- Do not open drawers or cabinets, turn lights on or off, or utilize 2-way radios or cell phones until safely out of the building.
- Clear the area, assisting disabled person(s) in exiting the building. Immediately call 911, and contact Daybreak University Administration. Once outside, move to a clear area at least 500 feet away from the affected building.
- Keep streets, fire lanes, hydrants, and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and crews.
- Do not return to an evacuated building until permitted to do so by Daybreak University Administration or other proper authority.

If a bomb threat is received by phone, the recipient should ask:

- When is the bomb going to explode?
- Where is the bomb located?
- What kind of bomb is it?
- What does it look like?

If possible, keep talking to the caller and take note of the following for the authorities:

- Time of call.
- Gender and likely age of the caller.
- Speech patterns, accent, possible nationality, etc.
- Emotional state of the caller.

Violent or Criminal Behavior

In the event of violent or criminal acts, immediately dial 911 and report the following to the dispatch operator:

- Nature of the incident
- Location of the incident
- Description of person(s) involved
- Description of property involved
- Weapons involved, if any
- Welfare of the victim

Daybreak University students or employees who witness a crime are expected to assist authorities insofar as they are able. Should gunfire or discharged explosives threaten the campus, move to a place of safety immediately using all available cover and concealment. After the disturbance, seek emergency first aid, if necessary. If an emergency text of a shooting is received, turn out all lights and lock the door. Please immediately report suspicious situations or persons to Daybreak University Administration.

Active Shooter Situations

In the extremely unlikely event of an active shooter on the Daybreak University campus, take all precautions to ensure your safety and that of others. Try to remain calm. If possible, move to a room that can be locked and lock yourself and others in. If the room has windows, keep on the floor so as not to be seen from outside. Call 911 as soon as possible and report the situation.

Do not leave a safe space until you are instructed to do so by the police or a campus administrator.

If a shooter enters your classroom or office, try to remain calm. If it is possible to dial 911, do so, and leave the line open so the dispatcher can hear what is being said in the room. It may be possible to negotiate with the shooter, but direct confrontation should be avoided, and attempts to overpower the shooter should be made only as a last resort. If the shooter gives instructions, try to do exactly as they say. If the shooter leaves, move as quickly as possible to a safe area. Do not touch anything the shooter has handled or that was in the shooter's vicinity.

If you decide to flee, make certain you have an escape plan and route in mind. Do not take anything with you, and keep your hands in view at all times. If you encounter a police officer, immediately follow their instructions, without question or hesitation. Do not attempt to move injured persons, but notify authorities as to their location as soon as possible.

Understand that police officers are trained to react as quickly as possible to such situations. They may be dressed in protective gear and may be armed with automatic or other heavy weaponry. Regardless of how the police officers appear, remember that they are there to stop the shooter and ensure your safety. Do not be afraid of them, but follow their instructions instantly and to the letter. Keep your hands visible at all times. The police may handcuff or otherwise detain you – remember that they may not know who the shooter is, and must take every possible precaution. Do not argue with or question the police in such a situation. Do exactly as the police say.

Bear in mind that the entire campus will be designated as a crime scene, and you will likely not be allowed to leave the area. Do not attempt to do so until given the go-ahead by the police. The police will establish a safe zone, and will generally order you to stay within it. Again, do exactly as the police say, without argument or hesitation.

Hostage Situations

Hostage situations are also extremely rare, but nonetheless, preparation is wise. If you are taken hostage:

- Be patient! Time is on your side. Avoid drastic action. The initial 45 minutes are the most dangerous.
- Follow instructions.
- Do not speak unless spoken to and then only when necessary (e.g., medications, first aid, or restroom use).
- Do not speak confrontationally to the captor, who may be in an agitated state. Maintain eye contact with the captor at all times, if possible, but do not stare.
- Be observant. You may be released or have the opportunity to escape. The personal safety of others may depend on your memory
- Be prepared to answer questions from the police on the phone.

Evacuation Routes

Evacuation routes are posted around the campus buildings in various places. Each floor has evacuation maps posted on the wall.

Fire Extinguishers

Fire extinguishers are located throughout the building. They are regularly inspected and maintained. Do not operate or handle a fire extinguisher except in an emergency.

Campus Closings

Campus closings will be reported via email, social media, the Daybreak University website, and on local radio, TV and internet. If there is any doubt regarding a school closing. Do not come to school until you have checked and verified that Daybreak University is open and operating.

2021-2022 ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The academic calendar consists of 10-week terms in fall, spring, winter, and summer. In addition, intensive classes are offered in summer and fall terms. Daybreak University operates under a quarter hour system. For all courses bearing academic credit, “one quarter hour of credit” is, at a minimum, one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately ten to twelve weeks. For example, a 4.5 quarter-credit course would require at a minimum 45 hours of academic engagement and 90 hours of preparation for a total of 135 hours. A credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute (not 60-minute) period. These dates are subject to change.

Calendar and Course Credits

Distance education courses will be offered according to the general University academic calendar. Courses are offered on a quarter calendar, however, if appropriate, shorter cycles are permitted with the permission of the Program Director.

Final examinations will be scheduled according to the designated examination period for the quarter or cycle, unless otherwise approved by the Program Director.

Daybreak University operates under a quarter hour system. For all courses bearing academic credit, “one quarter hour of credit” is, at a minimum, one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately ten to twelve weeks. For example, a 4.5 quarter-credit course would require at a minimum 45 hours of academic engagement and 90 hours of preparation for a total of 135 hours. A credit hour is assumed to be a 50-minute (not 60-minute) period.

As with any transfer coursework, academic credit may be transferred from a distance education course offered by other colleges or universities that are accredited by recognized agencies.

- (A) The courses or other educational programs that were completed, or were attempted but not completed, and the dates of completion or withdrawal;
 - (B) Credit awarded for prior experiential learning, including the course title for which credit was awarded and the amount of credit;
 - (C) Credit for courses earned at other institutions;
 - (D) Credit based on any examination of academic ability or educational achievement used for admission or college placement purposes;
 - (E) The name, address, website address, and telephone number of the institution.
- (6) For independent study courses, course outlines or learning contracts signed by the faculty and administrators who approved the course;
- (7) The dissertations, theses, and other student projects submitted by graduate students;
- (8) A copy of documents relating to student financial aid that are required to be maintained by law or by a loan guarantee agency;
- (9) A document showing the total amount of money received from or on behalf of the student and the date or dates on which the money was received;

- (10) A document specifying the amount of a refund, including the amount refunded for tuition and the amount for other itemized charges, the method of calculating the refund, the date the refund was made, and the name and address of the person or entity to which the refund was sent;
- (11) Copies of any official advisory notices or warnings regarding the student's progress; and
- (12) Complaints received from the student.

Diversity & Inclusion Policy

Respect for diversity is embedded in the nature of the MFT Programs at Daybreak University, and the Programs are committed to acknowledging and discussing issues of diversity. We employ a definition of diversity that addresses specific social dimensions of diversity while also recognizing the interconnections among these dimensions.

Our Program definition of diversity includes, but is not limited to, diversity in academic and professional background, race, age, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, relationship status, gender identity, socioeconomic status, disability, health status, religion and spiritual beliefs and/or affiliation, national origin, veteran status, and belief systems

In addition, the Program embraces the university's diversity definition, which emphasizes the intersectionality of social dimensions making up diversity:

Daybreak University's definition of diversity encompasses multiple dimensions. We use the Daybreak Diversity Wheel to demonstrate the intersectionality of those dimensions. We believe diversity includes all aspects of one's identity including but not limited to internal dimensions such as gender, race, sexual orientation, ability, etc.; community dimensions like marital status, education, religion, language, etc.; life experience dimensions such as experiencing historical events, personal history of abuse or prosperity, various living or employment situations, etc.; and current Daybreak institutional dimensions such as roles (e.g., student, staff, faculty, governing board, administrators, and stakeholders), school or department association, organizational position, etc. We believe that all aspects make up one's diverse identity and enrich the university.

As reflected in the Daybreak Diversity Wheel, our definition of diversity incorporates the concept of intersectionality. An intersectionality lens involves seeing interactions among multiple social dimensions and recognizing that societal power structures influence the meaning attributed to social identities. An intersectionality lens means that advancing diversity is intertwined with advancing equity and inclusion. This definition presents the advancement of diversity as an explicit aim and something that enhances the university community.

Program's Demographic Composition

Respect for diversity is embedded in the nature of the MFT Programs at Daybreak University, and the Programs are committed to acknowledging and discussing issues of diversity. We employ a definition of diversity that addresses specific social dimensions of diversity while also recognizing the interconnections among these dimensions.

Student Acknowledgement Policy and Confidentiality

Students are required to sign the Student Acknowledgement Form as part of the first course, acknowledging that they have read, understood, and have agreed to abide by all Student Acknowledgement and Confidentiality Policies required by the Program and they have reviewed this program handbook. Students are informed acknowledgement of potential differences in MFT licensure requirements across state/provincial regulatory bodies. Before a student begins the program of study, the student acknowledges, in writing, that they were provided information that licensing regulations may differ across states and provinces. Students are received the acknowledgment policy and form demonstrating information about portability of the degree.

MFT Training at Daybreak University can be both personally and professionally challenging. Students seek to acquire the knowledge and develop the practical skills needed to be successful as a systemically trained mental health professional. In this process, students are expected to engage in a high level of self-reflection, personal application, and self-disclosure. As a general rule, students should only share what they are comfortable sharing about themselves. Faculty, staff and supervisors are expected to handle student disclosures with respect and will only share information with other Daybreak University MFT faculty, Daybreak University administrators, clinical supervisors, staff, or student employers for the purpose of assisting in the student's development as a clinician. In addition, faculty and local clinical supervisors work collaboratively for the benefit of the students and the MFT program. Therefore, the faculty, supervisors, and staff may discuss and disclose information concerning performance as a student and as a therapist-in-training. This information, including information a student may share in courses or in supervision, will only be disclosed to other clinical faculty, supervisors, and staff as needed (deemed pertinent for students' and/or the MFT program's benefit by faculty, supervisors, and staff). No information will be shared outside of those listed above without consent of the student or without prior notification to the student of the disclosure, except in cases of emergency or litigation.

License Requirements

The California Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS) has determined that our university's MAC program with the Specialization in MFT meets the statutory requirements for Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. The program is designed to lead to positions in a profession, occupation, trade or career field requiring Licensure in Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT) in California.

Eligibility for Licensure as Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT):

1. Obtain a Qualifying Master's Degree
2. Register as an AMFT
3. Live Scan
4. Pass Criminal Background Check
5. Take and pass the California Law and Ethics Exam
6. Accrue Supervised Experience
7. Take and Pass the LMFT Clinical Exam
8. Obtain official LMFT license

The BBS's website (<https://www.bbs.ca.gov/applicants/lmft.html>) provides additional information regarding all requirements for students to be eligible for licensure in this state.

Student Acknowledgement Form

Instructions

To complete the form simply read each statement and then sign the form according to the instructions provided.

1. I agree to abide by all University requirements as outlined in the current Daybreak University Handbook and as updated throughout my time at Daybreak.
2. I understand that I must take full responsibility for ensuring that my degree program at Daybreak meets the licensing requirements of my local state and/or country licensing board (where applicable). I am required to sign the Student Acknowledgement Form as part of the first course, acknowledging that I have read, understood, and have agreed to abide by all Student Acknowledgement and Confidentiality Policies required by the Program and I have reviewed this program handbook. I am informed acknowledgement of potential differences in MFT licensure requirements across state/provincial regulatory bodies. Before I begin the program of study, I acknowledge, in writing, that I were provided information that licensing regulations may differ across states and provinces. I have received the acknowledgment policy and form demonstrating information about portability of the degree.
3. I have read and understand the program policy statement that if I have been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor prior to or subsequent to admission into the MFT program, I am required to immediately inform the Program Director of the MFT Program. I understand that such conviction may result in my dismissal from the program.
4. I understand that if I am diagnosed, treated, or admitted to a hospital or other facility for the treatment of any psychotic disorder (e.g. bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, paranoia, etc.); suicide attempt(s); substance abuse; or the illegal use of any controlled substance, habit-forming drug or prescription medication I am required to immediately inform the Program Director as this may interfere with my ability to competently and safely perform the essential functions of the MFT profession. I further understand that if this occurs, I will be required to provide a letter from my treating physician or licensed mental health professional indicating I am compliant with treatment and currently able to practice safely and competently.
5. I understand that a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 must be maintained throughout the program and is required for graduation. I understand that I must earn a passing grade in not less than 66.6% of total credit hours attempted, and I must complete this program within the maximum years of the program.

6. I understand that I will be provided with information about the Practicum Preparation Process (PPP) after I have successfully completed three courses. I understand I am expected to complete the entire PPP within the expected time limit (by the end of my sixth course).
7. I understand that in the MFT program I will be evaluated, through the PPP, to determine my clinical readiness to work with clients after I have successfully completed a minimum of the first six courses and before I can enroll in my first practicum course.
8. I understand that I may be placed on probation or other corrective actions by the University or administrative MFT faculty for unsatisfactory academic progress or for unsatisfactory performance in other training domains, including, but not limited to, PPP elements, practicum placements, internship placements, professional or ethical violations or concerns. If I am placed on probation, I understand that a remediation plan will be developed which I am expected to follow; completing all required elements of the plan.
9. I understand that if I violate the University's student Code of Conduct and/or Academic Integrity policy I may be subject to immediate administrative dismissal, and would not qualify for readmission to Daybreak University.
10. I understand that as a student in this program and as a student therapist I am required to conduct myself in accordance with the most current edition of the AAMFT Code of Ethics.
11. I understand it is my responsibility to secure an appropriate clinical training site and qualified local supervisor (AAMFT Approved Supervisor or State-Approved supervisor) as outlined in the Program and Clinical Training Handbooks. As indicated in my application and in this acknowledgement form, I understand that failure to find a qualified site or supervisor will make completion of the program impossible.
12. I understand I am responsible for keeping an accurate record of all of my client contact and supervision hours for review by my local supervisor(s), the Daybreak MFT faculty, and for the purpose of applying to state (or other) licensing boards.
13. I understand that in order to complete some of the course requirements, including the online supervision process used during the practicum courses, I will be required to participate in periodic (weekly during clinical training) online video conferencing meetings throughout my time in the program. In addition, I understand I am required to record some of my therapy sessions with clients (using a digital video camera) to share during online supervision sessions, as well as have all of my clients sign a standard informed consent document that discloses the video recording of sessions and requests permission for recording, transmission, and supervision of the sessions with the Daybreak MFT Faculty. I understand that the MFT faculty must approve any exceptions to this requirement.
14. I understand that I am required to complete 500 hours of direct client contact (at least 250 of these hours must be relational - working with couples, parents and children together, or whole families together), and 100 hours of approved supervision (at least 51 of these hours must be individual supervision, and at least 50 of these hours must include direct observation - either live or via video recording) received at the local site(s). I also understand that I am expected to review the relevant Program Handbook and Clinical Training Handbook for detailed information regarding these requirements.

15. I understand I am required to maintain weekly supervision at my local site and that I must participate in Daybreak faculty group supervision each week while I am actively seeing clients, or more frequently if required by my state rules and regulations or by my Daybreak Clinical Faculty.

16. I understand that prior to beginning any clinical experience, I am required to submit proof of professional liability insurance

17. I have read and agree to abide by the Confidentiality Statement in the Program Handbook and Clinical Handbook.

18. I understand that faculty and on-site supervisors work collaboratively for the benefit of the students and the MFT program. Therefore, I understand that the MFT faculty, supervisors, and staff may discuss and disclose information concerning my performance as a student and as a therapist-in-training. This information, including information that I may share in courses or in supervision, will only be disclosed to other MFT clinical faculty, supervisors, and staff as needed (deemed pertinent for my personal and/or the MFT program's benefit by faculty, supervisors, and staff), except where otherwise outlined in the Program or Clinical Handbooks.

19. I have read the Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) Program Handbook relevant to my program and understand all of the information contained therein. I have been given an opportunity to ask questions about the Handbook and understand that if I have concerns about it or the contents of it, I may speak with the Program Director before signing this statement. Furthermore, I agree with the information provided in the MFT Program Handbook and agree to abide by the conditions stated therein.

20. I have reviewed the MFT Program's mission, goals and student learning outcomes in the Program Handbook and understand that I may directly contact the Program Director (jjinkim@daybreak.edu) with any questions or feedback that I have.

If you have questions about any of these items, please discuss them with your current professor or request to meet with MFT Program Director (jjinkim@daybreak.edu).

DAYBREAK UNIVERSITY

Student Acknowledgement Form

This is to inform everyone seeking a Masters or Doctoral program in Counseling with a Specialization in Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) at Daybreak University. There are potentially differences in MFT licensure requirements across state/provincial regulatory bodies. MFT is held to strict licensure requirements, which include at least a Master's level of education as well as supervised clinical practicum hours. Licensure requirements vary by state to protect their residents in the states therefore each state has different requirements, regulations, and licensure exams.

Before I begin the MFT program at Daybreak University, I was given a copy of Daybreak University's MFT Student Handbook with information about school's policies as well as the potential differences in MFT licensure requirements across states.
